Dear Allen:

Just a short note to you to recommend

He is an exceptionally fine young man with wide experience in engineering languages and intelligence work in World War II. He applied in May 1950 for employment in CIA and in January he received a letter saying that he was being considered for employment. Since then he has heard nothing. I can really say that he would be a credit to any organization that employs him. I thought you could help in the matter.

Will you be sometime in L.I. and won't you and Clover (?) come and see me. We are not very far away from you.

Love to you both

/s/ Olga Wrangel
